

F8 Reliability by $|\eta|$ — gate + Platt-2, val split, 20 equal-width bins, 95% Wilson intervals.
 $|\eta|$ rather than signed η because the detector is forward-backward symmetric, so folding doubles the statistics per bin. Forward bins traverse more material and sit at higher occupancy, which is where the χ^2 gate is expected to be worst.

