

F7 Reliability by search-window occupancy — gate + Platt-4, val split, 20 equal-width bins, 95% Wilson intervals. Occupancy is the count of candidates competing at that step, so $n=1$ has no ambiguity to resolve while $n=7+$ is a jet core. Curves fanning apart mean calibration depends on occupancy; curves lying together on the dashed diagonal mean it does not.

